Dolly Garlo is an expert career transition and personal reinvention strategist. Fueled by a personal epiphany, her own often challenging career changes were ultimately a quest to redesign her life – to be fuller, more meaningful, enjoyable and on purpose for both professional and personal satisfaction. She realized from her own experience that this was a difficult journey for most people to make alone, keeping them stuck and unhappy.

That led Dolly to create a system in her coaching practice to take people from confused, frustrated and unfulfilled to clear, on track and at peace. She 'cracked the code' on how to do that more quickly, easily and comprehensively.

With a wealth of solutions, Dolly works with people ready to pursue work and involvements using their experience, expertise and values, as well as their preferred skills and interests to create the full life harmony they long for. She helps them pursue greater aspirations and take the lead to create more significant influence and impact.

MASTERFUL LIFE Redesign© and Creating Legacy© 2015 to present by Thrive!! Inc. & Dolly Garlo

Dolly's Signature Presentation:

"Beyond Career Success: Design an Inspired New Path for Life, Leadership & Legacy"

Developed especially for people at mid-career, early retirement, or financial independence from a significant life event like inheritance, divorce or marriage and insurance settlements, sale of business or professional practice – who are ready to create something different or more fulfilling... and aren't sure how to get there.

Accomplished professionals, small business owners and senior executives in business or government service, entertainers and athletes considering a new career and life path will appreciate this material.

Dolly offers insights and guidance for building new, more inspiring and satisfying levels of engagement, leadership, influence, impact and contribution.

Dolly is the creator of:

MASTERFUL LIFE | Redesign

The most comprehensive life and career planning program available.

It is the ultimate tool to discover what is most important for full life satisfaction, allowing participants to better communicate their true aspirations with family, colleagues, professional advisors, and maybe most importantly... with themselves.

And then to put it all in place. This saves time, expense and sometimes the angst involved in recognizing their fullest potential and actually making it all happen.

Dolly's Presentation Style:

Professional, researched and solid information delivered with an inspiring, practical focus.

Dolly journeyed from critical care nurse to attorney and business owner, to board certified professional coach, speaker, author, non-profit advisor and director, philanthropist and legacy consultant, environmental advocate and champion of feminine leadership. She brings insights in the art and science of health and wellness, business development, career advancement, professional growth, communication styles and behavioral strengths, neuroscience, personal and organizational development, estate and financial planning, and legacy design to presentations that are highly engaging, memorable and even transformational for participants.
